

Introducing the new look bethinking.org

Chris Knight

Welcome to the new look bethinking.org. We hope you like the new features and the slightly different appearance. We've tried to make it easier for you to find what you're looking for, and to comment on what you like and what you don't. So do let us know what you think of the changes – or any problems you find.

Bethinking.org still has some of the very best resources to help you to defend and communicate your faith. We've also added some new features, including:

- § a new Search facility to help you find resources covering particular topics

- § ideas for you to Get More Involved with apologetics in general and in particular with making bethinking.org better known

- § an Events page with details of talks and training courses related to apologetics

- § a News and Views page that will let you know about relevant items from the news as well as offering views on various topics from different writers - plus an opportunity for your comments too

- § a link on each page to Comment on each resource

- § About Us brings together information about bethinking.org, including FAQ, our Site Policy and other important details

We pray that bethinking.org continues to prepare and encourage you to share your faith.

Keep thinking!
