

Unbelievable? Jesus and the Eyewitnesses

Justin Brierley

Jesus and the Eyewitnesses

In two successive programmes, transmitted on 29th August 2009 and 5 September 2009, Justin Brierley and his guests discussed "Jesus and the Eyewitnesses" on his Premier Christian Radio programme Unbelievable?.

Richard Bauckham is author of Jesus and the Eyewitnesses, which won the 2009 Michael Ramsey Award for Theological Writing and has been heralded as a paradigm shift in the way the authorship of the Gospels should be seen. Richard argues that the Gospels are based on eyewitness accounts and should be regarded as fundamentally trustworthy.

New Testament historian James Crossley, author of Why Christianity Happened, discusses the implications of Bauckham's work and whether the Gospel of John was written by the disciple John himself, as Bauckham claims.

Play Part 1 in a Popup window

Play Part 2 in a Popup window

N.B. Please note that clicking on further links within the Popups will stop the audio! You can use the links below while continuing to listen.

You can also download the programmes from the Premier website Audio Feed page (some older browsers may not be compatible) - on that page, scroll down to the relevant date and right click to download the mp3 file.

Links to explore further:

Click here to purchase Jesus and the Eyewitnesses.

For further details on Richard Bauckham visit <http://www.ridley.cam.ac.uk/people/rbauckham.html>.

For further details on James Crossley see <http://shf.ac.uk/bibs/staff/jgc.html>.

For more discussions between Christians and non-Christians, visit the 'Unbelievable?' homepage.

© 2009 Premier Christian Radio

This programme is reproduced here by the kind permission of Justin Brierley and Premier Christian Radio.