

The Two Streams: Integrating Reason and Imagination

Andrew Fellows

Andrew Fellows examines the problems that can arise when reason and imagination are separated in human life. He argues that only in Christ are reason and imagination properly satisfied, and only in Christ is the tension between them truly reconciled.

At the start of the talk, Andrew played Pink Floyd's "Wish You Were Here". This is not reproduced for copyright reasons. The lyrics can be accessed here.