

Paganism Strikes Back: the Return of Ancient Spirituality

Andrew Fellows

Although this talk was given in the late 1990s, Andrew Fellows addresses a highly topical issue - the rise of modern paganism. Andrew describes and evaluates paganism, assessing both the challenge it presents to the church, as well as the challenge that Christianity presents to paganism. He argues that the logical and long-lasting successor to the worldview of modernism is not post-modernism, but paganism.

At the start of the talk, Andrew refers to "Frozen" by Madonna, a song from her 1998 Album "Ray of Light". This is not reproduced for copyright reasons. The lyrics can be accessed here.
