

Christian Persuaders

Alex Banfield Hicks

“I am excited about Christian Persuaders because it recognises that apologetics is very important. Evangelism is not just sharing your heart with your friends; people have honest questions which need to be answered. Therefore, the idea of a generation of Christian Persuaders, who are trained to give answers to those questions in the heart of the academy, I really think is the need of the hour.” – Tim Keller

Minister at Redeemer Presbyterian Church, NYC author of The Reason for God

Christian Persuaders

© 2010 UCCF

“A generation of Christian Persuaders... I really think is the need of the hour” – Tim Keller

The Christian Persuaders Training is:

§ A rolling program of public speaking opportunities and tried-and-tested training conferences

§ You'll prepare and deliver a fifteen minute apologetic talk, receiving feedback and training from the team

§ A small, residential conference

If you're committed to engaging with the sceptics on campus and care about persuasive evangelism, find out more about how Christian Persuaders can help you to be more effective in defending your faith.

For more information, e-mail Alex Banfield Hicks.
Go to the Christian Persuaders website.