

Is Religious Experience Evidence for God?

Justin Brierley

Religious Experience - Is It Evidence for God? Richard Morgan, Todd Pitner & Gordon Livesey

In his Premier Christian Radio programme Unbelievable?, transmitted on 27th March 2010, Justin Brierley and his guests discussed the question of whether Religious Experience can be evidence for belief in God.

Richard Morgan and Todd Pitner both experienced adult conversions from atheism to Christian Faith.

Morgan, whose conversion story two years ago has been told before on "Unbelievable?", questions whether atheists who rule out personal experience as evidence for God are acting consistently.

Todd Pitner, who was converted two and a half years ago, presents his own story and what he believes was a miraculous event. He now runs a website www.iloveatheists.com that seeks to answer the main challenges to Christian belief.

Atheist Gordon Livesey interacts with both stories as we ask questions such as – "Is a Christian's testimony their best evangelistic tool?" and "Is there more to evidence than a purely scientific approach?"

"Is Religious Experience Evidence for God"

N.B. Please note that clicking on further links within the Popup Box will stop the audio (but pressing Control with the link is OK)! Alternatively, you can use the links above and below while continuing to listen.

You can also download the programme from the Premier website Audio Feed page (some older browsers may not be compatible) - on that page, scroll down to the relevant programme and right click to download the mp3 file.

Links to explore further:

For Richard Morgan see www.premiercommunity.org.uk/profile/RichardMorgan.

Read his story here (p8): www.freechurch.org/pdf/monthlyrecord/sept08.pdf.

For Todd Pitner's website see www.iloveatheists.com/.

For his story see: www.iloveatheists.com/about_us/dear-friends.

Get involved with more Christian/non-Christian debate or get the podcast or via iTunes.

Join the discussion at the "Unbelievable?" group of the Premier Community.

For more discussions between Christians and non-Christians, visit the 'Unbelievable?' homepage.

© 2010 Premier Christian Radio

This programme is reproduced here by the kind permission of Justin Brierley and Premier Christian Radio.