

Reason, Experience and Knowledge

Greg Grooms

Greg Grooms reflects on knowledge, certainty and how we know what we know. After a whistlestop tour through the philosophical reflections on this subject of Rene Descartes, John Locke, David Hume, Immanuel Kant and Francis Bacon, Greg considers how the existence of an absolute, infinite but personal God can overcome the limitations of knowledge imposed by mankind's finite and sinful nature.