

Studying ... Art? Fine Art?

Tom Price

Sometimes subject specific resources can be very helpful. As artists and designers it is crucial that we have high standards for the work that we make, and that we have a strong desire to grow in our Christian faith. And we should seek to bring together the work that we make and the faith that we have in Christ, without compromising either one.

Resources (books)

Introductory

Imagine by Steve Turner (IVP)
Escape From Reason - Francis Schaeffer (Crossway)

Intermediate

Modern Art and the Death of a Culture by Hans Rookmaaker (Apollos)
The God Who Is There - Francis Schaeffer (Crossway)

Advanced

He Is There and He is Not Silent - Francis Schaeffer (Crossway)
Bearing Fresh Olive Leaves by Calvin Seerveld (Piquant)

Resources (other)

Studying?

Interface is a network of students who love Christ and love the Creative Arts. We're a member of the Universities and Colleges Christian Fellowship (UCCF). Interface supports students studying art, design, music, drama, fashion or something creative somewhere in the UK. You can find their website here

Working in the media and arts?

Interface is a network of students who love Christ and love the Creative Arts. We're a member of the Universities and Colleges Christian Fellowship (UCCF). Interface supports students studying art, design, music, drama, fashion or something creative somewhere in the UK.

Artisan publish a magazine to subscribers and prayer partners. Each issue is themed and tackles a particular issue, the most recent issue looks at TOURING. You can access all the articles and more on their website.

ACG supports Christians who work in arts and media, and have been doing that for 30 years. They have a remit to nurture, support and encourage members to explore both their artistic goals and their Christian faith, and offer a variety of means for them to interact and connect. You can join their membership and find out more about them by visiting their website